

Employment Eligibility Verification Policy

Sample Policy Document

This document is anonymized sample content for demonstration purposes. It does not reference a real company, institution, client, person, or location.

Policy Statement

The organization verifies employment eligibility for all employees and workers in accordance with applicable law. New workers must complete required eligibility forms and provide acceptable identity and work authorization documents within the required timeframe.

Responsibilities

Workers are responsible for completing their portion of the verification form by the first day of work. Authorized reviewers are responsible for reviewing original documents and completing the employer portion by the third business day after work begins.

Compliance

A worker may not continue working beyond the permitted verification period if required documentation has not been completed. Questions should be directed to the human resources team.

Administration

Questions about this sample policy may be directed to the human resources team.

Document Title: Employment Eligibility Verification Policy